026 / 24 CORNWALL COUNCILLOR UPDATES – Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe reported:

“My sincere congratulations to Cllr Whitty and her husband Terry for becoming Mayor and Consort, thank you for a wonderful evening last Wednesday, despite still recovering from a nasty virus I was pleased to attend and talk to so many residents, the entertainment was outstanding. My best wishes go alongside my congratulations for being elected as Deputy Mayor to Cllr Julian Smith. Julian is currently under- going treatment in Derriford hospital, but I know he would rather have been at the Mayor Choosing Ceremony. My thought are with him Carolyn and their family. I was privileged to be invited to attend the Kings Garden Party at Buckingham Palace on 8th May, the weather was glorious, and it was a very special occasion. There were several members of the Royal Family attending including their Majesties the King and Queen Camilla, The Princess Royal, the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh and the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester. Also, our Cornwall Lord Lieutenant Col. Edward Bolitho.

The next meeting of the Community Area Partnership will be held on 4th June at the China Fleet Club in Saltash. Nominations for Chair and Vice Chair are being sought before the meeting and I understand notifications have been sent out to Parish representatives.

One item that will be on the Agenda for discussion is a decision by the Cornwall Council committee Constitution and Governance. This decision relates to disallowing questions for clarification to Parish Council representatives at Planning meetings and to disallow questions to the objector of an application, but they will allow question to supporters or applicants. This does not sit comfortably with members of the Planning committee, and we have asked for the decision to be reconsidered at Constitution and Governance on the 18th June. The SE Cornwall CAP represents 29 Parishes, and I am asking that you consider representing your view at the meeting and if you disagree in writing to the Chair of Constitution and Governance.

The road closure on Barn Street is currently in operation and we have managed to secure some reduced bus services for the village of St Keyne. We are optimistic that the problem will be quickly identified, and repairs will be carried out as quickly as possible. We are sorry for any inconvenience these works may have caused to residents.

I am keeping an eye on the review of the decision to not accept Household DIY Waste at Connon Bridge HWRC. This was to be reviewed in June. If you have evidence of fly tipping, please continue to report it and if this decision has caused you problems disposing of this type of waste including tyres, please write to the WASTE Dept at Cornwall.gov.uk.”

Cornwall Councillor Nick Craker reported:

“ Cornwall Council’s AGM had taken place. Cllr Pauline Giles re-elected as Chairman of the Council, Cllr Jordan Rowse re-elected as Vice Chairman of the Council and Cllr Linda Taylor elected Leader of the Council unopposed. Cllr Martin Worth a Saltash Councillor would be joining the Cabinet with the ‘Customers’ portfolio, responsible for things such as digital.

- The new Integrated Services Hub Cornwall Council offices development in the Cattle Market was scheduled to start on 10th June. One parking machine had been removed and another relocated, both continue to accept cash and card payments.

- A community consultation would begin soon on the refurbishment and design of the smaller work units opposite the WorkShed thanks to funding from the Shared Prosperity Fund.”
